

Vision

The Centre is striving hard to emerge as centre of excellence for cross-disciplinary research and scholarship in different branches of philosophical studies such as ontology, epistemology, metaphysics, ethics etc across spatio-temporal trajectories.

Mission

The Centre provides exemplary environment and opportunity to scholars and researchers to foster and develop theoretical and applied inter-disciplinary research in philosophical studies. Further the Centre shall be committed to educate students of the University in the various schools of philosophy.