

Department of Computer Science and Engineering

Ayata a software company is offering Software Engineering-Internship (Machine Learning ,Data Sciences) opportunities for a period of 6 months,upon successful completion of the internship period the selected candidates performance will be evaluated based on which the exceptional student can be offered a permanent software Engineer position within thecompany. The company also provides a stipend for the selected candidates.

Desired skill Set:

- Experience with Object Oriented development.
- Experienced with at least one modern language, multiple strongly preferred (Java, Python, Javascript)
- Understanding of Databases and Data Modeling.
- Strong theoretical background in a variety of Computer Science foundational concepts (algorithms, data structures, networking etc.)
- Strong desire to learn new technologies and to innovate
- Strong interpersonal communication skills. Excellent oral and written communication, presentation and analytical skills.

Responsibilities:

- Continuous learning environment, learn and share your learnings with the rest of the team and contribute in Open Source projects and give back to the community.
- Collaborate with a cross-functional team of Product Owners, Designers, Developers, Engineers, and Operations.
- Use bleeding edge Open Source technologies to innovate and set the pace on the Analytics market.
- Work in an Open Space Environment (no cube walls, no offices)

Minimum Qualifications:

- Currently pursuing a Bachelors or Masters degree in Computer Science or related technical field
 - Basic knowledge of Java programming language
 -

Offerings:

Stipend is offered, decided based on interview performance

Lots of learning in fields of Machine Learning, NLP, Software Development , Analytics etc.

For more details contact the Department.