

Department of Computer Science & Engineering Islamic University of Science & Technology

Notice

Sixth Semester students who had registered their names with the office of HOD CSE for being the part of the Departmental Software Development Cell are hereby notified that; Department has received exceeding number of applications than the available slots and thus in order to select the team members the a screening test will be conducted on 17 June 2016 at 2:30 PM

The screening test will consists of 45 MCQs and check the aptitude level and programming skills in C and Java.

HOD CSE