KASHMIR

Subject: Contributions to the IUST Zakat & Sadaqah Fund.

NOTICE

The Islamic University of Science & Technology (IUST) has established the IUST Zakat & Sadaqah Fund with the objective of extending financial assistance to the students belonging to economically weaker and marginalized sections of society who face difficulties in meeting their educational expenses.

The Fund is intended to support deserving students in meeting essential academic expenditures including tuition fee, books and other related educational expenses, thereby enabling them to pursue their studies.

In addition to the University's own contribution to the Fund, the IUST Zakat & Sadaqah Fund welcomes voluntary contributions from members of the University fraternity, employees, alumni, philanthropists, corporate organizations, civil society members and other well-wishers.

All such contributions are being utilized exclusively financial support of eligible students in a transparent and accountable manner as per the approved guidelines governing the Fund.

All members of the society are earnestly requested to extend their generous support to this noble initiative aimed at promoting inclusive access to higher education.
