CIR IUST Hosted Talk on NEP 2020 with Focus on Inclusivity and Equity

Awantipora, April 29: The Centre for International Relations, hosted a special session titled “Fostering Inclusivity and Equity in Education: Realizing the Vision of NEP 2020”, delivered by Dr. Mudasir Ahmad Wani, from Department of Political Science, Government Women’s Degree College, Kupwara.

The talk offered valuable insights into the transformative goals of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, with a specific focus on inclusivity, equity, and access in the Indian education system. Drawing from his academic expertise, Dr. Wani emphasized the need for bridging regional and social disparities in education through the frameworks outlined in NEP.

The event was attended by faculty members and students from the CIR. It was followed by an interactive session on the practical implications and challenges of implementing NEP’s inclusive vision at various levels.
