IUST Organizes Program on PM Viksit Bharat Rozgar Yojana

Awantipora, October 15: The Islamic University of Science and Technology (IUST) convened a program today featuring Shri Vinay Kumar, Regional Provident Fund Commissioner, as the distinguished resource person.

The event centered on the Pradhan Mantri Viksit Bharat Rozgar Yojana (PMVBRY), highlighting its significance within institutional governance, workforce welfare, and employment-driven initiatives. Shri Vinay Kumar provided an in-depth overview of the scheme's implementation framework, discussing its far-reaching impact on employee wellbeing and organizational growth.

Designed to foster dialogue on best practices in employee management, policy execution, and the advancement of social security provisions for personnel, the program attracted active participation from faculty and staff across the University, underscoring IUST's commitment to promoting innovative and welfare-oriented administrative practices.
