

B.A (Hons) in English

The department introduced the B.A (Hons) Programme in English from the academic session 2017-18. The B.A(Hons) Programme was initiated with the vision to provide excellent learning prospects at the undergraduate level. The strength of the programme lies in its course structure wherein the students are given specialized training in literature coupled with the flexibility to study subsidiary courses from across the School of Humanities and Social Sciences. The students can opt for subsidiary courses from Arabic, Economics, International Relations, Islamic Studies and Journalism & Mass Communication.

In order to complete the B.A (Hons) programme in English, the students have to earn a minimum of 140 credits.

With the B.A (Hons) Programme in English the students are eligible for M.A Programme in English and also for M.A Programme in the subject taken up as subsidiary.
