Awantipora, Nov 06: The Literati club, Department of English Language and Literature presented a theatre performance of William Shakespeare's famous play Macbeth at Islamic University of Science and Technology (IUST) here on Monday.

According to a statement issued here, keeping into consideration the overwhelming response of the audience two shows were held. An artistic performance of this magnitude was performed for the first time in the IUST Campus.

On the occasion, Vice Chancellor, Prof Mushtaq A Siddiqi hailed the club for its impeccable performance amid limited resources and theatre space constraints. "Such artistic creative ventures needs to be encouraged on the campus as theatre is a necessary element of university education and it also provides different insights into scientific breakthroughs," he said.
