MA ENGLISH

• About the Course:

The Master's programme in English offers subjects ranging from Contemporary British Literature to Indian Writing in English, from World Literature to Contemporary Critical Approaches with a wide range of fiction, non-fiction, drama and poetry from the 19th and 20th centuries. Deeper understanding of canonical and innovative approaches to English literature is apportioned through different courses covering significant literary texts and movements from the age of Chaucer in the 14th century to the present. Special emphasis on current debates in Literary Theory, lesser known but significant literatures and courses in Linguistics give students an insight into the structure and the function of natural languages as a system of cognition and communication. The Choice-Based Credit System (CBCS), further empowers students to tailor their academic experiences by selecting courses from literature and also other disciplines.

• Who can Apply?

A Bachelor's Degree or its equivalent, with a minimum of 45% marks from a recognized University/ Institution, with English Literature as one of the subjects in at least 04 semesters/ 02 Years at UG level or B.A. (Hons) in English.
