

Role of Ombudsperson

The Ombudsperson's primary responsibility is to promote the well-being of students which includes offering a confidential and secure environment for individuals to voice their concerns related to harassment, inappropriate behavior, unprofessional conduct and restrictions on freedom of expression according to university policies. The Ombudsperson will guide the students of the University community and the institution in resolving such disputes.