

Goals: -

This vertical is envisioned to work as a bridge between Industry and Academia aiming collaboration at various levels for enriching the curricula, promoting industry-oriented research, and facilitating mind to market transition.

Objectives: -

1. To establish University-Industry linkages (UILs) that would help in imparting industry suited skill set among students to pave way for their fulfilling careers and realizing the rich demographic dividends.
2. To organize interactive programmes with industry to help students gain insights into latest industry practices, technological advances, capacity building, learning of soft as well as technical skills and also facilitating joint research efforts in the areas of mutual convergence.
3. To organize workshops, conferences, Industry-Academia conclaves, seminars and student exchange programmes.