

Alamdar Memorial College of Nursing and Medical Technology ,Charar-e-Shareif, Budgam, Islamic University of Science and Technology, Awantipora , Kashmir
In collaboration with Nursing division Ministry of health & Family Welfare New Delhi organised an International webinar on latest trends in nursing Education.

Alamdar Memorial College of Nursing and Medical Technology, Charar-e-Shareif, Budgam, a constituent college of Islamic University of Science and Technology, Awantipora, Kashmir organised an International webinar on latest trends in nursing Education in collaboration with nursing division ministry of health & family welfare New Delhi from 9th October to 11th October 2021. the chief guest of the event was Hon'ble

Vice Chancellor IUST Prof. Shakil Ahmad Romshoo. The webinar was started by organising secretaries Ms. Insha Rasool and Ms. Fehmeeda wani , Tutor AMCN and MT , who welcomed the dignitaries and participants of the program. Principal of the college Prof. (Dr.) Mehmooda Regu , in the principals address said the nursing education has pivotal role in preparing nursing professionals for promotive , preventive and rehabilitative aspects of health care, with hand on skill. The trends in nursing education are organised under the areas of curriculum innovation, technologies and trends in skill teaching learning process, evaluation system, quality assurance and outcomes, knowledge expansion, modes of education, licensure regulation, hybrid learning model, next phase of learning, the blended class room and research aspect in all latest trends of nursing education. Prof. (Dr.) A. H. Moon, Dean academic affairs, IUST, appreciated the work done by nursing officers, during covid-19 pandemic and also added that majority of patient care is rendered by nursing professionals, further he gave some life experiences about nursing profession. Prof. Naseer Iqbal, Registrar, IUST, also added the appreciation for the profession. He discussed about the development and research conducted and guided by nursing faculty of the college.

The scientific session commenced-with a pre-test in which existing knowledge of participants was assessed by using structured questionnaire. During scientific sessions of 3 days, topic like extensive deliberations, development, latest trends in e-learning, e-education in nursing education, virtual simulation technology, video assisted practical global nurses with transitional acceptance were discussed. Dr. Ruth Robert , chief nursing education Academia , USA , Dr Rathi Balachandran Assistant director nursing division MoHFW Govt. India, Dr Usha Mullich Ukande (Director Nursing services care continuum) , Dr Geeta Sinha (Nursing care continuum New Delhi) , Dr Raman Kalia (principal cum professor Saraswati Nursing inst. Punjab, Prof. Urmila Bhadarwaj (principal Sharda university , New Delhi) , Prof. Pity Kaul (Director of Health science IGNOU New Delhi) Miss Rakhi Mishra (Assistant professor AIMS Rishikesh) were key note speakers .

The webinar was attended by more than 1300 participants which included principals, professors, teaching faculty, clinical nursing officers and students of various nursing colleges of India USA, Canada.

During valedictory session Prof. Dr Mehmooda Regu, principal AMCNMT appreciated the organisers and faculty for success of program. She highlighted the experience of organising the webinar first of its kind in J&K. She emphasised its utility interms of knowledge gain for faculty, Ph.D. scholars, M.sc and B.sc nursing students and participants as revealed by the effectiveness of report based on pre-test and post-test results.

The webinar concluded with the vote of thanks proposed by Ms. Rouquia Manzoor teaching faculty AMCNMT.

ANC/21/403

Dated: 12.10.2021