EVENT NAME: TEN DAY COMMUNITY OUTREACH PROGRAM ON TEACHER TRAINING

 Dated: 3rd July - 12th July

Target Audience: Faculty members from different government colleges of UT, including the faculty members from the Department of Arabic Language and Literature, IUST.

A ten-day Community Outreach Program on "Teacher Training" was organized by Department of Arabic Language and Literature in Collaboration with International Educational Institution 'Arabic for All" Riyadh, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.

The program was sponsored by Riyadh (Saudi Arabia) based organization "Arabic for All. The objective was to facilitate the teaching of Arabic to non-Arabic speakers by utilizing modern technology. The resource persons from the guest institution were Mohammad Ewaz Al-Jummah and Abdur Rehman Al-Fouzan.

The event was organized for university and college-level teachers to help them hone their language teaching skills and equip them with the latest methodologies and innovative teaching techniques. A good number of faculty members from different Government Degree Colleges of UT, J&K, including the faculty members from the Department of Arabic, IUST, attended the program. The program's rationale was to involve the faculty members of the Degree Colleges of UT of J&K and build linkages among institutions.

The Ten-Day Teacher Training Program proved to be highly beneficial in enhancing participating educator's pedagogical skills, instructional strategies, and classroom management techniques. The program's comprehensive approach, involving expert presentations, workshops and peer collaboration, resulted in positive outcomes and empowered teachers to create impactful learning environments.

In the program's concluding session, Mr. Abdur Rehman Al-Fouzan thanked all the participants. Dr. Irshad Ahmad Mir, Sr. Assistant Professor and Departmental Coordinator (community connect), Department of Arabic Language and Literature, coordinated the program and concluded the program with a vote of thanks.
