

ISLAMIC UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

AWANTIPORA, KASHMIR

The Board of Studies meeting (BoS) of DJMC was held on 18th March, 2024 to review and upgrade syllabus for MA in Journalism and Mass Communication, which was chaired by Dean, School of Humanities and Social Sciences Dr. Munejah Khan.

The meeting was conveyed by Dr. Mujeeb Liyakat, Head, DJMC and Convenor BoS (DJMC). The meeting was attended by external experts including Prof. Sabeha Mufti, Head, Media Education Research Centre, University of Kashmir, Prof. Aaliya Ahmed, Professor MERC and Director, Institute of Kashmir Studies, University of Kashmir, Prof. Krishna Sankar Kusuma, Head, Department of Convergent Journalism, AJK Mass Communication and Research Centre, Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi and Internal Experts including Dr. Monisa Qadiri and Dr. Ruheela Hassan, Senior Assistant Professors, Department of Journalism and Mass Communication, IUST Awantipora J&K.

The agenda of the BoS meeting was to upgrade the syllabus of M.A. Journalism and Mass Communication with the aim to introduce more skill and industry oriented courses in compliance with National Education Policy, 2020. During the insightful session, the BoS members actively engaged in comprehensive discussions on all the courses, thoroughly reviewing the proposed syllabus. Their experience and expertise brought valuable insights and suggestions in ensuring that the curriculum aligns with the National Education Policy, 2020. The meeting was held in a hybrid mode with experts joining both in person and online.