Central High School Pulwama Visits CIED IUST Foundation

Central High School Pulwama visits CIED IUST Foundation for Innovation and Entrepreneurship Exposure development.

Prof. Parvez A. Mir, the Director of the Centre for Innovation and Entrepreneurial Development (CIED) at IUST Foundation, engaged with students to share an insightful overview of the department and its objectives. He emphasized CIED's commitment to enhancing educational opportunities and meeting the unique needs of students through various outreach programs. His discussion highlighted the vital role of innovation and entrepreneurship in fostering a supportive learning environment, encouraging students to explore their potential and pursue their entrepreneurial ambitions. Prof. Mir's insights aim to inspire the next generation of innovators and entrepreneurs.

The main aim for students visiting the Centre for Innovation and Entrepreneurial Development (CIED) is to gain exposure to the critical role of innovation and entrepreneurship in today's world.

The visit was exposure to innovation and entrepreneurship can help them understand how these concepts drive progress and create new opportunities. It's also a great way to develop practical skills, network with industry professionals, and explore their own entrepreneurial ideas.

Engaging directly with the director can provide students with insights into the process of developing innovative ideas and securing funding.

The overall visit was thoughtfully designed to provide valuable insights, resources, and inspiration specifically for female students, encouraging them to explore and pursue careers in innovation and entrepreneurship.

The overall visit was impactful for the students! A meaningful experience like this can significantly influence their perspectives on innovation and entrepreneurship.
