CIED-IUST Foundation Concludes One-Week Short-Term Computer Course for Students of the Department of Islamic Studies

December 13: A one-week short-term course on computer applications was organized from December 9-13, 2024, by CIED-IUST Foundation for the students of the Department of Islamic Studies at IUST.

More than 30 students attended the course. The course was designed to equip students with practical skills in key applications such as Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint and other relevant digital tools, empowering them to thrive in an increasingly technology driven world.

The program was led by experienced trainers from CIED-IUST Foundation, who provided personalized guidance to help students master essential computer skills. Special emphasis was placed on ensuring that all participants gained the technological proficiency necessary for building up entrepreneurial and innovative spirit.

The valedictory session was attended by Prof. Parvez A. Mir, CEO CIED-IUST Foundation, Dr. Showkat Hussain Dar, Head of the Department of Islamic Studies and other esteemed members of the CIED-IUST Foundation. During the session, participants expressed their gratitude to the trainers for the insightful and enriching sessions. Certificates were distributed to the participants.
