CIED-IUST Foundation Celebrates National Entrepreneurship Day

The CIED-IUST Foundation observed National Entrepreneurship Day with a vibrant event aimed at fostering entrepreneurial spirit. The event was inaugurated by Prof. Parvez A. Mir, the CEO of CIED-IUST Foundation, who addressed the participants with inspiring words about the significance of entrepreneurship in today's world. Prof. Mir highlighted the importance of innovation, risk-taking, and perseverance in building successful entrepreneurial ventures.

He shared valuable insights, guiding the participants on how to transform ideas into sustainable businesses and encouraged them to think creatively while navigating the challenges of entrepreneurship. The event provided a platform for networking, learning, and exchanging ideas, inspiring a new generation of entrepreneurs to take charge of their own business journeys.

Prof. Mir encouraged the participants to embrace the entrepreneurial mindset, stressing the importance of creativity, resilience, and problem-solving in addressing societal challenges. The day provided an excellent platform for networking, idea-sharing, and inspiring future entrepreneurs to play an active role in shaping a better tomorrow.
