"NET Coaching for Arabic Students"

Date: 16th & 17th December, 2024

Target Audience: Alumni and post graduate students

Discription:

The Department of Arabic Language and Literature, IUST successfully conducted a Two Day community outreach programme on "NET Coaching (General Paper) for Arabic Students" for the alumni and post graduate students, on 16th and 17th December 2024. This initiative aimed to provide participants with a deeper understanding of the NET (General Paper) syllabus, enhance critical thinking, research aptitude and equip them with effective examination strategies. The Departmental Coordinator Dr. Irshad Ahmad highlighted the aims and objectives of the programme and emphasized the importance of such initiatives in empowering students to excel academically and professionally. The workshop featured insightful sessions led by esteemed resource persons Mr. Shahbaz Rafiq (Mathematics) and Dr. Irshad Alunad Thoker (Computer Science) and witnessed enthusiastic participation, fostering an interactive and collaborative learning environment. The valedictory session celebrated the achievements of the workshop and I/ c Dean School of Humanities and Social Sciences motivated participants to pursue their goals with renewed confidence.
