Alumni Meet (2024)

The Department of Food Technology under the aegis of Alumni Connect IUST Awantipora hosted its much-awaited Alumni Meet on 30-12-2024. The event brought together alumni, faculty, and current students for a day of celebration, nostalgia, and inspiring discussions. The event was graced by the presence of distinguished alumni namely Dr. Mudasir Ahmad Malik (Assistant Professor, GKCIET, Malda, West Bengal), Dr. Mohd. Aaqib Sheikh (National Postdoctoral Fellow, NIT Rourkela), Dr. Sadaf Parvez (Assistant Professor, University of Kashmir), Dr. Zakir Showkat Khan Senior Research Fellow, IUST Awantipora). These distinguished alumni shared their professional journeys, achievements, and valuable insights during engaging keynote speeches and interactive sessions. Their stories inspired the audience, reflecting the department's legacy of excellence and its role in shaping future leaders in the field of Food Technology. The event also included interactive sessions, networking opportunities, and updates on the department's recent accomplishments and initiatives. Alumni reconnected with their peers and faculty, fostering a sense of community and collaboration. The department extends its gratitude to all participants, guests, and organizers for making the Alumni Meet 2024 a resounding success. The event reaffirmed the department's commitment to nurturing a strong alumni network and promoting innovation and growth in the field of Food Technology. Dr. Tariq Ahmad Ganaie (I/C Head, Department of Food Technology) shared his views and briefed about the importance of organizing such kind of events. Finally, Dr. Nisar Ahmad Mir (I/C Alumni Coordinator, Department of Food Technology) presented vote of thanks and the event was then concluded.
