

CIED–IUST Foundation Conducts Session on Startup Legal and Ethical Steps for Management Students

10-06-2026: CIED–IUST Foundation organized an insightful session on “Startup Legal and Ethical Steps” for students of the Department of Management Studies, IUST. The program was aimed to create awareness among aspiring entrepreneurs about the legal and ethical considerations essential for establishing and managing successful startups.

The session was inaugurated by Prof. Parvez A. Mir, CEO, CIED–IUST Foundation, in the presence of Mr. Sameer Wazir, Finance Officer, IUST, esteemed team members of the CIED–IUST Foundation, faculty members, and a large gathering of students from the Department of Management Studies.

In his inaugural address, Prof. Parvez A. Mir highlighted the significance of understanding legal compliance and ethical business practices in the entrepreneurial journey. He emphasized that startups must operate within a robust legal framework while adhering to ethical standards to build sustainable and credible enterprises.

Mr. Sameer Wazir served as the expert speaker for the session. During his presentation, he shared valuable insights on the legal and ethical steps involved in launching and scaling startups. He elaborated on key aspects such as business registration, regulatory compliance, financial accountability, taxation, contractual obligations, and ethical responsibilities of entrepreneurs. He also engaged in an interactive discussion with the participants, addressing their queries and emphasizing the importance of integrity, transparency, and responsible business conduct in entrepreneurship.

The session was concluded with an engaging question-and-answer session, where participants sought clarification on various legal and ethical issues faced by startups.
