One Day Workshop on Civil Services as a career option was organized at IUST

Awantipora, December 12: Dean Outreach IUST, organized a one-day career counseling workshop which was attended by students of different departments.

The program was conducted by Mr. Vaibhav Sanas and other experts in the field who introduced the aspiring students to Civil Services held at state and national levels. The students were briefed about the civil services examination pattern and about the strategies needed to qualify them

The students enthusiastically participated in the discussion and posed many questions to the experts. Mr. Vaibhav Sanas encouraged the students that Civil services are a premier career choice for the youth that affords them the opportunities to serve the country and participate in policy-making.

Dean Outreach Prof. Lily Want urged the students to work hard and appear in the Civil Services examination for a glorious career.
