

ONE DAY WORKSHOP ON DETAILED PROJECT REPORT (DPR)

CIED IUST FOUNDATION

AWANTIPORA

One day workshop on Detailed Project Report (DPR) for entrepreneurs started today at CIED FOUNDATION IUST Under the direction of Director CIED Prof. Parvez. A. Mir.

The Director of CIED, Prof. Parvez.A. Mir, inaugurates one day workshop on DPR for the entrepreneurs. In the inaugural part of the workshop Prof. Parvez A. Mir interacts with the participants give the overview of the purpose and objectives of the DPR.

Mr Sameer Wazir,(Finance Officer IUST) likely stressed the significance of accounting on tally, he aware the participants regarding the debit ,credit and terms of the accounting. He also shares his knowledge regarding the Fundamental of the Tally, Accounting Principles and other advanced features.

Mr. Manzoor Ahmad delivers a brief session to the participants about the Tally. He shares his experience to the participants that without tally knowing a business man is handicapped. In his brief lecture he shows the practical part of the how tally is working in the business. He also aware the students regarding the cost principle, matching principle and objectivity principle.

The Tally workshop aims to equip young entrepreneurs with practical skills and knowledge in using Tally, widely used accounting software essential for managing business finances effectively. Proficiency in accounting software is invaluable for entrepreneurs, enabling them to maintain accurate financial records, analyze business performance, and make informed decisions.

The workshop is facilitated by experienced trainers who specialize in accounting software and have a wealth of practical knowledge to share with participants. Through interactive learning activities and personalized guidance, participants will gain practical skills that are directly applicable to their entrepreneurial endeavors.

