

IUST hosts TED TALK

Awantipora March 23: Islamic University of Science and Technology (IUST) Wednesday organised TED TALK in collaboration with NIT Srinagar. The event was organised by Dean of students, IUST headed by Dr Anisa Jan. Dean Research/Dean School of Engineering and Technology Prof A.H. Moon, who was the Chief Guest for the event, expressed happiness over the conduct of such events in the University and congratulated the organizers for the same. Prof Shabir Ahmad Bhat from Department of Management Studies briefed the audience about the genesis of TED TALK and its relevance in present time.

Director Averroes Centre of Philosophical Studies Prof Lily Want deliberated on the technical aspects of TED TALK and its impact in shaping the discourse in different ways around the world. Twelve students from different departments participated from IUST and were evaluated by the jury comprising of Dr Tahir Wani and Dr Rafiq Ahmad Teli, Assistant Professors from the Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, NIT Srinagar. The event highlighted the ideas like imagination, Self-acceptance, Mentoring, Sports, Self-confidence, Education etc. The event ended with a formal vote of thanks by Baziga Youssuf from the Department of Electrical Engineering IUST.

Issued through
PR and Media Centre